CONFERENCE TOPICS

The grain markets today are influenced, more than ever, by outside forces and developments. Topics at GlobalGrain2007 will include:

- World Grain Outlook for 2007/08
- Bio Energy market developments
- Financial market involvement in the grain industry
- Credit Finance and Collateral Trade Agreements
- Contractual Maintenance, how to avoid legal problems
- The freight market, now a major trading component
- Market and Trade Risk Management
- The weather – now a major ingredient in market volatility.

The conference schedule also leaves time for networking – meeting new contacts and renewing old friendships.
